

CONTENT

Introduction	7
TÜNDE A. BARABÁS (editor)

I. INTERNATIONAL CASE STUDIES

Narratives of Transitional Justice, Economic Violence and Organized Corruption during Transition – where is Western Balkan?	10–27
SUNČANA ROKSANDIĆ
Corruption in the Czech Republic: An Overview	28–49
VLADIMÍR NAXERA
Corruption and Corruption Control in Germany	50–85
MICHAEL KILCHLING
Country case study – Hungary	86–105
ÉVA INZELT – REGINA SZEPCSIK
Italian case studies	106–142
COSTANZA DE CARO – ANNALISA MANGIARACINA – LUCIA PARLATO
Corruption and Corruption Control in The Netherlands	143–157
WIM HUISMAN
Polish case study	158–202
CENTRAL ANTI-CORRUPTION BUREAU OF THE REPUBLIC OF POLAND
Petty and high-ranking corruption in Romania	203–221
ANDRA-ROXANA TRANDAFIR – ANCA JURMA
Countries' case studies – Serbia	222–238
ALEKSANDAR STEVANOVIĆ – NIKOLA VUJIČIĆ
The case of the United Kingdom	239–258
BRENDAN QUIRKE

II. HUNGARIAN RESULTS

Results of the second analysis. Corruption offences in Hungary	260–278
JÓZSEF KÓ
The appearance of petty and high-ranking corruption at law enforcement organs of Hungary	279–295
ZITA VEPRİK
Difficulties of proving in corruption cases in the light of Hungarian court decisions	296–311
ADRIENN LACZÓ
Budget fraud against financial support from the European Union's resources – an empirical study	312–334
KRISZTINA FARKAS	