

CENTRAL ANTI-CORRUPTION BUREAU

The Central Anti-Corruption Bureau is the special service for combating corruption in public and economic life, particularly in public and local government institutions as well as to fight against activities detrimental to the economic interest of the State. It is professional and modern institution that promotes compliance and integrity.

Our task is not only to detect and combat corruption and economic crimes, but also, and perhaps in the first place, to prevent irregularities and to support government institutions from possible damage.

The Bureau conducts its activities under the Act of 9 June 2006 on the Central Anti-Corruption Bureau.

The tasks of the Bureau in terms of its statutory competence comprise, first of all, identification, prevention and detection of crimes (laid down in art. 2, paragraph 1, item 1 of the Act on the CBA) and prosecution of perpetrators, as well as:

- disclosure and prevention of cases of non-compliance with the limitation of conducting economic activities by persons performing public functions;
- documenting the grounds for and initiating implementation of the provisions on the reimbursement of unjustly obtained benefits at the expense of the State Treasury or other public legal entities;
- control of the correctness and truthfulness of asset declarations or statements on conducting economic activities by persons performing public functions;
- disclosure of cases of non-compliance with certain provisions of law-making procedures and implementation of decisions concerning: privatisation and commercialisation, financial support, awarding public procurement, disposal of assets of public finance sector entities, entities receiving public funds, entrepreneurs with State Treasury shareholding or local government units, granting of concessions, permits, subject exemptions, reliefs, preferences, quotas, tariff ceilings, sureties and bank guarantees;
- conducting analytical activities concerning the phenomena occurring within the CBA's competence and presenting information in this regard to the Prime Minister, the President of the Republic of Poland, the Sejm and the Senate.
